

LIBERTY BELL PARTY TO SPEND NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT HERE

First Night in County to be Spent Here by Woman Suffrage Party

NOW ON TOUR OF THE STATE

Arrangements Being Made for Celebration Beginning Early in Evening With Auto Parade--Speaking to Follow--Route Outlined.

Charleroi will have the honor of keeping the Woman Suffrage Liberty bell on the first night of its entrance into Washington county on the tour of the western end of the state. This will be next Wednesday night and preparations are being made for properly celebrating the event.

The party with the Liberty bell will reach Washington county from Allegheny county about noon on next Wednesday and will make the first stop at Monongahela. From there the bell will be taken to Don-ora, and then to Monessen in Westmoreland county. Plans are that the party with the bell will arrive in Charleroi at about 7:30 o'clock and a parade be held preceding speaking at a place to be announced later.
Then the bell will be housed for the night at a local garage and the party will leave on Thursday for a tour of the county. The first stop after Charleroi will be made at Bentleyville and from there the party will go to Washington, Canonsburg and other points. Three days will be spent in the county.

In the party in charge of the Liberty bell will be Miss Louise Hall, one of the prominent state suffrage workers; her brother Oliver Hall, who looks after the bell and truck; Miss Harriet Grimm, Mrs. Guy Hill and Mrs. William Frye. One of the members of the party is from Wisconsin.

The bell was the gift of Mrs.
Rushberger, of Philadelphia and is a replica of the famous Liberty bell of the Revolutionary war period. It cost $4,000. After the tour of Pennsylvania the bell will be taken to the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, and there exhibited.

The entire program for the local celebration has not yet been made up, but will be announced in a day or two. It is probable that the bell be-met by the local suffrage committee in autos at the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, to begin the auto parade over the principal streets of Charleroi.
Suitable decorations will be provided.

GEORGE S. MIGHT'S SONS WILL HANDLE NORTH CHARLEROI ROUTES

Charleroi Firm Purchases North Charleroi Delivery Business From Mrs. Gene Sharpnack.

The firm of George S. Might's Sons local news dealers has purchased the news business at North Charleroi from Mrs. Belle Sharpnack and will take charge on July 12. The firm will handle the newspaper business of all the Pittsburgh newspapers at North Charleroi as well as the Mail.
A news stand will be opened up at the North Charleroi end of the Mon-essen-Charleroi bridge and this will be headquarters. Magazines will be sold and there will be some one in charge all the time. An effort will be made to put the North Charleroi newspaper delivery service on a par with the Charleroi service.

IMMENSE CROWD HEARS CONCERT

Charleroi Concert Band
First Musical Attraction at Bathing Beach

ADVANTAGES OF BEACH SEEN

Attended by a crowd generally estimated at 2,000 to 2,500 the first band concert at the Charleroi Bathing Beach was on Thursday evening the biggest kind of a success. Edward Wheeler directed the Charleroi Concert band in the rendition of a splendid program that was arranged admirably to please the mixed audience.
Along the river shore the music sounded more than usually attractive.
Bathing during the hour of the concert was not enjoyed to the greatest extent possible, but people got an opportunity to see the advantages offered at the beach.

The program consisted largely of marches and popular numbers, which suited the large crowd. One of the best rendered was an operatic potpourri. The band played well.

On Sunday afternoon beginning at about 3 o'clock another concert will be given at the Bathing beach, this time by the Johnny Jones' carnival band. The program thus far has not been announced.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN IN HONOR TO MRS. CROCKARD

A farewell party was given Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Maud Crockard, district deputy of the Protected Home Circle at the home of Mrs. Myers on Fallowfield avenue.
About 30 members of the Circle were present. Lunch was served. Mrs.
Crockard was presented with a beautiful pearl ring by her friends.

BOY OF 16 LOSES LIFE UNDER TRAIN

William Laura, aged 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Laird, Jr., of Mon-essen, died at the Memorial hospital in Monongahela Thursday evening as the result of a fractured skull.
Young Laird and two other boys were endeavoring to jump a coal train with the intentions of riding to Webster and returning on the six o'clock passenger train. The two other boys succeeded in safely landing on the train steps. Young Laura missed his footing, his foot slipping through the step and under the moving wheels. He lost his balance and remained suspended his head striking against the ties until his skull was fatally fractured.
As soon as the accident occurred a bystander hailed the engineer and the train was brought to a stop.
The injured lad was rushed to the Memorial hospital in Monongahela and death resulted a few hours afterward. The body has been brought to the late home of Monessen. Funeral services will be announced later.

KIDNAPPING CASE FALLS FLAT UPON INVESTIGATION

"Tony" Mitchell of Monessen and Brazilian Carnival Man Explain They Are Taking Lad Home.

"Tony" Mitchell, aged 48, and a Brazilian, who said he conducted a small carnival in Monessen was on a Pittsburgh-Charleroi street car Thursday and because he was attired on sombrero, blue flannel shirt and adorned with a flowing black mustache of the "stage villain" variety and was carrying a light-complexioned boy aged about 3, the conductor called Policeman W. H.
Graney in Pittsburgh and suggested that the pair be investigated.

Mitchell and the boy were taken to Central Police Station in Pittsburg and Police Commissioner R.
J. Alderdice thought the police had a sure-enough case of kidnapping on its hands. Mitchell explained that the lad was his nephew, "Gus" Mitchell of Butler, Pa.; that the boy had been visiting him in Monessen and that he was taking him home. He was allowed to depart.

WORK STARTED ON 12-MILL TIN-PLATE COMPANY ADDITION

Work was begun this week on the new 12-mill addition to the plant of the Standard Tin Plate company at East Canonsburg.

Upon the completion of this addition the present number of employes will be increased from 1,000 to 2,000 which will mean a great deal to Canonsburg. The present payroll of the company will be increased by at least $200,000.

In spite of the drawbacks of the present war industrial situation, this addition to the plant of the Standard company makes prospects for better times in this section much brighter.
The construction work on the new plant will alone benefit the district to a great extent.

Notice.

terian Church Gathering.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting Thursday afternoon in the Sunday school room of the church.
Mrs. F. C. Stahlman presided. The topic of study was "The Indian," and the discussion was led by Mrs. N.
W. Patton. She was assisted by Mrs.
John Campbell, Mrs. William Gelder, Mrs. D. Jeffries, Mrs. Ira L.
Nickerson, Mrs. J. F. Bowman, Mrs.
Harris and Mrs. Ellis Allman. A duet was sung by Mrs. John Metz and Rev. J. R. Burson. A number of Indian pictures were on exhibit and examples of their music and folk lore were presented.

to well known families.

DANCING OATMANS TO HOLD DANCING CONTEST

The dancing Oatmans, formerly of Charleroi, appeared for the first time at the Palace Theatre Thursday evening with their dancing act, and made a hit. Their act includes three of the New York craze dances. Tonight a dancing contest will be held, and two g old cash prizes will be awarded to the best dancers. The audience will decide the winners.
The contest will be held after the first

EXPLOSION RESULTS IN DEATH OF ONE AT MILLSBORO MINES

MINER IS PERHAPS FATALLY WOUNDED IN CRESCENT MINE

Motor Passes Over Body of Fallen Miner Severing Arm and Badly Crushing Skull.

John Yousakick, aged 22 a Poland-er who lives in Roscoe but works in the Crescent mines at California, is in perhaps a fatal condition at the Mercy hospital in Pittsburgh. While working in the mine on a motor Yousakick went a small distance in advance of the motor to attend to the track. Somehow he caught a foot and fell to the track as the motor approached. The motor passed over his body, cutting an arm from his body and crushing his skull along with several other injuries. Very slight hope is entertained for his recovery. Yousakick is married and lives in Roscoe. It is stated that his injury was caused through a misunderstanding or ignorance of the mine regulations.

WATCHMAN TO BE PLACED AT SECOND

Pennsylvania Railroad Takes Action to Prevent Any Accidents

WILL ENFORCE TRESPASS LAW

A watchman will be stationed at the Second street crossing by the Monongahela Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. This announcement was made this morning by Capt. W.
J. Davis, who is at the head of the police department of the division and who was here this morning conferring with Burgess S. L. Woodward and Chief of Police C. W. Albright.
The watchman will be located at the crossing, starting with Sunday.
Capt. Davis extends a warning to people not to trespass between the railroad station and Second street for they will surely be arrested if they do. He urges that everyone crossing to the bathing beach or the carnival of next week use the Second street crossing. Persons attending baseball games will be required to cross the tracks at Second street.

ing at Eldora park Thursday afternoon and evening. Husbands were invited and supper was enjoyed at the park. There were about 50 in the party and a splendid time was had.

Gases Overcome Four Officials When They Attempt Recovery of Body

OPEN LAMP CAUSES EXPLOSION

Gas Not Known to Exist in Mine-- Sixty-five Miners at Work in the Same Mine Escape Uninjured-- Victim Leaves Wife and Children

One man is dead and four men who were overcome by black damp while attempting to rescue him escaped death by a close margin as a result of an explosion in the mine of the Hustad-Semans Coal company at East Millsboro, about 11 o'clock Thursday morning. Sixty-five other miners in the workings at the time were uninjured.

Joseph Orris, aged 45 years, a pumper in the mine who ran into a pocket of gas while wearing an open lamp and caused the explosion, is the lone victim of the accident. He was married and leaves a wife and six children.

Mutilated and lifeless the body of Orris was reached shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday evening and was immediately brought to the surface.
The finding of the body was delayed because no modern safety equipment for rescue work was kept ready for emergencies at the mine. Brattices had to be constructed and the damaged section of the mine before the body could be recovered.

Four officials rushed into the part of the workings where the accident occurred in an effort to rescue Orris but were quickly overcome and rendered unconscious by the poisonous fumes that sprang rapidly following the explosion.

John C. Miller, aged 35, superintendent of the mine was in a critical condition for three hours but finally commenced to rally and inside four hours was out of danger. He recovered sufficiently to return to the mouth of the pit late Thursday afternoon but did not venture into the mine.

William Bunton, aged 50, road boss; William Growler, aged 35, machine boss and Thomas Hess, aged 35, fire boss were the other men to be overcome. Bunton and Growler were discovered and carried to a point of safety by Boyd Sargent and Miller and Hess were found by J. K.
Scott. Sargent returned to help Scott in carrying the unconscious forms of Miller and Hess.

The mine was never before known to have gas and miners were permitted to work with open lamps.
Orris, who had gone on duty at 2 o'clock Thursday morning, was just completing his duties for the shift in preparation to leave the workings. He was 2,000 feet in the mine in a section that was not being worked when it is supposed that he encountered the pocket of gas, which was immediately lighted by his open lamp.

Although the jar was felt by workmen in other parts of the mine, the explosion was not a heavy one and the damage done was small. Superintendent Miller and the other three.

A SEASONABLE HOMILY Perhaps some very ordinary individuals have been kept in promise and lucrative positions because of the powerful influence of a friend. But friends die and influence wanes and mediocrity invariably finds its level.
For a time the incompetent may flourish like the green bay tree, but the withering period arrives very soon and presently nothing remains but the bare and yellow leaf, says the Altoona Tribune.

Nor is genius always the precursor of success. Genius is a handicap in many instances. The person it dominates is eccentric, a bundle of quivering nerves, the subject of strong temptation, many times yielded to, and a poor creature at best, in spite of his peculiar powers. Ordinary ability to do things is frequently a better gift than genius ever can be.

However, we started out to talk a little while about the folly of those young persons who begin with the conviction that they can bluff their way through life. Or the quite as great folly of those who think of the present moment alone; who are moved by the desire to achieve the end aimed at just now, no matter what the means employed. The future?
It's nothing.

So they think. They have a "lucky" moment or two at the critical period of their young careers or what they call a lucky moment. The impression is conveyed that they are wiser, more competent, better educated, bigger in every way than they really are. And so they pass out into the great arena, poorly equipped and possessing a confidence they will soon betray.

Nothing in this world will take the place of downright hard work.
There is absolutely no substitute.
By means of industry of the right sort many a youth who begins life under the most adverse circumstances overcomes every difficulty that confronts him, wins one surprising victory after another and finally leaves far behind him those who despised him in the beginning.

We knew a young fellow who was born in the country on a farm, and who determined to be a lawyer. He was merely ordinary natural ability.
His friends feared for his future and his enemies and the general public laughed at him. It was quite widely reputed that he was a very wrong-headed and stubborn young man. The people who knew him best had least faith in his future.

And yet he won out. Examinations were not nearly so difficult in those days as they are now. Possibly he could not have won his way in 1917.
And yet we do not know. At all events he was admitted to the bar.
Fung out his shingle and started in to the practice of his profession. He is dead now, but he left a comfortable fortune for his descendants, the result of hard work.

That man's "stubbornness" brought success. He was not a pretender. He was no counterfeiter. He had no art whereby to conceal his defects. He had no powerful friends to remove obstructions from his pathway. He stuck to the job. He compelled his slow brain to be his obedient servant.
He proved dependable. And thus he won clients and achieved a remarkable success before the end came.

He who leans on others is apt to find his support suddenly vanish at the very moment he needs it most.
Knowledge which has not been made one's own cannot be depended upon.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not keep her any.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial.
She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her profits didn't come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs.
MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

When we form the habit of having our work done by a kindly disposed friend we are left helpless and incompetent the moment that friend is called to some other field of labor.
Dependence is supreme folly.

There is nothing in honors unless they have been earned. No obstacle can prevent the onward march of the self-reliant. No boasting can bring permanent victory to the banner of the incompetent and ignorant.

CARNIVAL TO BE REPLETE WITH NUMEROUS FEATURES

For the lovers of affairs athletic the Johnny J. Jones carnival and Exposition shows which open in Charleroi on Monday under auspices of the Moose lodge afford an entertainment that cannot fail to attract.
It is Rogers' Athletic Hippodrome and features the work of Jack More, the Italian champion wrestler who agrees to meet all comers and pay five dollars to all who last more than five minutes with him on the mat.
Besides More the show carries two women wrestlers, Jennie Williams and Kitty O'Brien who give exhibitions.
There is also a battle royal every performance which alone is worth going miles to see.

Prof. Kuntz and his European Flea circus is another attraction of the shows. He has a band of 390 trained tiny performers, who juggle, loop the loop and play with miniature toys. There are several wonder shows with the Johnny J. Jones outfit among them being the Davis wonder Show featuring Boby the sea lion boy who is completely covered with sealskin. Then there is Austins 10 shows in one.

intervals, during which times she recognizes and talks with relatives.

INCENDIARIES BLAMED FOR CARNIVAL TENT FIRE

Barkoot Company Suffers Loss at Their Show Grounds at Monessen End of Bridge.

From an origin, supposedly incendiary, the wrestling tent of the Barkkoot carnival now operating at Wireton was burned Thursday night about 9 o'clock. It is thought that the burning was the aftermath of a free-for-all fight Wednesday night in which a crowd of Greeks fought some carnival employees, resulting in one Greek being seriously injured when his skull was fractured.

Benzine was thrown about the tent and then ignited causing considerable blaze and damage to the interior of the tent. It happened when the crowd in the tent was well thinned out and all persons escaped any serious injury. No arrests have yet been made.

officials, who so narrowly escaped death, were in the mine and were notified that an accident had occurred. They immediately commenced an investigation and search for the body of Orris, who it was known was the only man likely to be in that part of the mine.
With the exception of the officials and Sargent and Scott all the miners left the workings, good order prevailing as they made their exit.
Three wooden brattices were torn down by the force of the concussion.
The section of the mine in which the explosion occurred was immediately closed and after a short delay work was resumed as usual in other portions of the mine.

FRECKLE-FACE

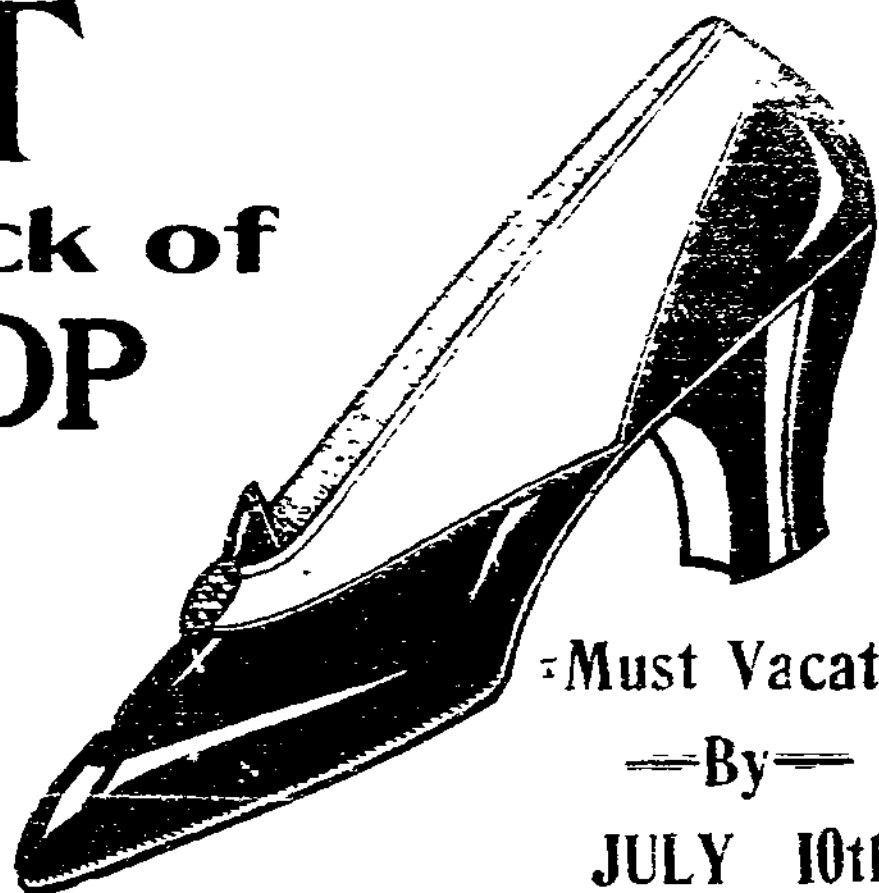

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots.
How to Remove Them.
Here's a chance. Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask for the doublestrength othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.
A Bald Head Only Indicates that the scalp has been neglected. We recommend that you use Rexall Hair Tonic Kills the germ that causes the hair to fall out and will keep the scalp healthy.

AMONG THE THEATRES

LYRIC-CHARLEROI
Saturday and Monday shows of great interest have been arranged at the Lyric theatre. On Saturday two masterpieces will be presented. One of them is "In The Stretch," in four parts and the other, "The Silver Bill" or "The Courage of a Child." On Monday which is to be observed as Independence Day a patriotic program will be shown, the chief picture to be "His Sympathy Plea."

PALACE-CHARLEROI
Two former Charleroi people are appearing in vaudeville at the Palace theatre the last three days of this week in a daring act that is distinctly a good one. They are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oatman. In their act they dance all of the latest dances including two which are not generally known yet to the public. Mr. and Mrs. Oatman have had a successful season so far in Pittsburgh and vicinity and Charleroi is one of their first visits away from the city. Other attractions on the vaudeville program this week are: Cahill and Mitchell, comedy singers and Mildred Mallen a soprano singer. Perhaps the leading moving picture production of the week at the Palace was "When it Strikes Home," presented on Wednesday evening, with Grace Washburn in the leading role. "Darkness Before Dawn," with Octavia Handworth and Ethel Clayton in the leading roles. Both these productions were big ones that drew large crowds.

COYLE-CHARLEROI
One of the best summer's programs possible was presented at the Coyle theatre this week with some of the biggest features produced in moving pictures being presented by Manager Coyle. On Monday night a strong drama was "The Resurrection of a Woman," i. being a sort of Tolstoy story of Russia. On Tuesday the wonderful Mary Pickford was much to the delectation of the large audience present. Wednesday's attraction was one of the biggest. The title of the featuring production being "The Avenging Conscience," it being an adaptation of Edgar Allen Poe's poems. The production was produced by D. W. Griffith who found in some of the poems of Poe wonderful opportunity for development of a wonderful theme. On Thursday a Frohman picture was featured, the title of it being "The Month and the Flame." The drama is one of Clyde Fitch's best and by the splendid cast was presented with a wonderful reality.

MAJESTIC-CHARLEROI
"Vitagraph's greatest production" is the way in which the film "Jugernaut," is fittingly described, it being one of the leading pictures this week at the Majestic theatre. It was truly a good feature. Anita Stewart and Earl Williams were featured. One of the scenes showed a railroad wreck. A full orchestra played at this performance as well as at other performances of the week. On Monday the leading presentation was "Officer 666," it being shown in splendid parts. Tuesday, "Who Pays" was the title of the presentation of the first of the twelve vital questions of life. In this presentation each story is complete in itself. The ever popular Charles Chaplin was starred on Thursday and is billed for presentation again on Saturday, when also a full orchestra will play. The serial film "Diamond From the Sky" which has been attracting great attention at the Majestic drew crowds on Thursday. Hard colored pictures were also featured then.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case: 33 B St. Keyser, W. Va.
"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated) (Signed) MRS. H. K. BRILEY.
Eckman's Alternative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, $1; regular size, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries.

CARS THAT CAN'T OVERTURN

Gyrostatic Devices Give to Vehicles a Stability Which is Claimed to Be Perfect.

Dr. J. H. Gray recently exhibited before the Royal Society at London gyrostats with accessories and a series of what may be called "animated" gyrostats. These latter consist of gyrostatic motor cars, both two-wheeled and four-wheeled. The models exhibit Doctor Gray's methods of endowing gyrostatic devices, mounted on moving bodies, with complete stability.

The devices so mounted are available for directing and forcibly maneuvering the bodies. One of the two-wheeled cars is provided with a gyrostatic "chauffeur," which stabilizes the car and presides at the steering-wheel. This car illustrates the action of directing and stabilizing apparatus for use on torpedoes, airships and aeroplanes.

A further form of two-wheeled car demonstrates methods of stabilizing and maneuvering an airship by means of forces derived from the propellers, which apply a direct push to the moving body. Doctor Gray's bicycles and motor cars are so equipped that they can be steered by the wireless transmission of electrical action.

They Knew All About Auto.

Two Bronx men who had just bought an automobile decided to take their first ride, and had it rolled out of a garage at One Hundred and Sixty-seventh street and Southern boulevard. They both knew all about cars, they said, and wanted no assistance from the garage employees in getting it started.

One man took the wheel and the other began cranking. He cranked until he was breathless and red in the face. Then his companion alighted and began to crank. For half an hour the men took turns at the crank, but to no purpose.

"They have sold us a dead one," ventured one of the owners. "It's worse than dead," retorted his companion.

"If you look you'll find your car is without gasoline, water or oil," ventured a chauffeur, who with several other automobile drivers had been watching the cranking performance.

When the car was provided with running necessities it cranked easily and the owners drove away delighted.

Oddly Damaged.

In the opinion of M. C. Mason Griffin he was greatly humiliated in Washington recently by members of a theatrical troupe forcing kisses on him as he sat with his wife watching the performance. The kissing was apparently part of a plan to create laughter by revealing a blushing, bashful man to the audience. Griffin brought suit for $1,000 against the theater management in consequence.

A suit was brought against an old New York stage company by a passenger who complained that he had been insulted by the driver calling down from his seat outside that he ought to get up and give a woman a seat. The driver protested his innocence and it was only after a well-known ventriloquist of the period came forward at the trial and declared he had thrown his voice so as to make it appear that the driver addressed the aggrieved passenger that the suit was dropped. Then the passenger declared he would sue the ventriloquist, but was dissuaded from doing so.

Delivering Letters Stolen a Year Ago.
Post office inspectors at Seattle, Wash., are endeavoring to deliver to the original addressees 500 letters stolen more than a year ago from the Seattle post office by W. A. Byers, a former postal clerk, and hidden by Byers under a heap of ashes in the fireplace of his former home.
At the time Byers was arrested nearly 3,000 letters were found concealed in an office which he maintained for the practice of law. He pleaded guilty and was sent to prison. Recently L. T. Merry moved into the hotel which Byers had formerly occupied and in cleaning the fireplace unearthed the additional letters.

American Typewriters Liked.
The favor with which the American typewriter is regarded all over the world was demonstrated at a contest which took place a short while ago in Copenhagen, where there were sixty-nine competitors, and more than forty of them made use of American machines. All the principal prizes were carried off by those making use of American machines, and, in fact, only two of the prizes were taken by operators of foreign machines, and they were the smallest prizes offered.

A young doctor, making a start in a small town, decided that to be prosperous he must look prosperous. He bought a new buggy and two good horses. Although he had only a few patients he always kept on the jump, attending to his patients' smallest needs. People began to notice this young doctor driving about town and they called him because he looked busy and prosperous. He got his start—a start that led to a comfortable practice.

A town, like this doctor, must look prosperous to be prosperous. Clean streets, attractive store windows, well-painted buildings and dwellings give the prosperous air. Well-painted buildings are greatest of these.
